

FMG wins at 2016 Fleet News Awards

FMG were delighted to scoop the Fleet Specialist Services Supplier of the Year at the prestigious 28th annual Fleet News Awards.

The awards, held at the Grosvenor House Hotel in London, on 10th March are judged by respected industry experts to recognise fleets, managers and suppliers who demonstrate best practice, innovative products and great customer service.

Against a strong field that included National Windscreens, Green Road and Chevin Fleet Solutions, FMG was awarded the Fleet Specialist Services Supplier of the Year for their commitment to fleet, customer service and innovation in the industry.

Commenting on their win Mark Chessman, FMG CEO said: "This is a great accolade for the business and testament to the hard work and commitment of everyone at FMG, as we strive to provide great service to our customers. It's an excellent example of how we are able to tell our story to our market place and be recognised for the way we are building on our strengths and moving forwards as a business.

Thank you to all of the team for the hard work, effort and commitment that has gone in over the last 18 months, it gave us a compelling story to tell in our submission for the award."

On the night FMG were also highly commended in the Fleet Supplier of the Year award coming close to winning the award against competitors such as RAC Business and The Automobile Association.
