

REDDE plc

NOMINATION COMMITTEE TERMS OF REFERENCE

Approved by the Board on 30th July 2014

Membership

1. The committee shall comprise at least two directors. A majority of the members of the committee shall be independent non-executive directors.
2. Only members of the committee have the right to attend committee meetings. However, other individuals such as the chief executive, the head of human resources and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting, as and when appropriate and necessary.
3. Appointments to the committee are made by the board and shall be for a period of up to three years, which may be extended for further periods of up to three-years, provided the director still meets the criteria for membership of the committee.
4. The board shall appoint the committee chairman who should be either the chairman of the board or an independent non-executive director. In the absence of the committee chairman and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting from those who would qualify under these terms of reference to be appointed to that position by the board. The chairman of the board shall not chair the committee when it is dealing with the matter of succession to the chairmanship. No-one shall be present during the discussion of, or vote on matters regarding, his or her own position.

Secretary

5. The company secretary or his or her nominee shall act as the secretary of the committee.

Quorum

6. The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be two both of whom must be independent non-executive directors. A duly convened meeting of the committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the committee.
7. All votes at committee meetings will be on the basis that each committee member has one vote but in the event of a tie and so long as more than two committee members who are available to vote are present the committee chairman (or acting chairman) shall have a casting vote.

Frequency of meetings

8. The committee shall meet at least twice a year and otherwise as required.

Notice of meetings

9. Meetings of the committee shall be called by the secretary of the committee at the request of the committee chairman.
10. Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date, together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the committee, any other person required to attend and all other non-executive directors, no later than five working days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to committee members and to other attendees as appropriate, at the same time.

Minutes of meetings

11. The secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance.
12. Draft minutes of committee meetings shall be circulated promptly to all members of the committee. Once approved, minutes should be circulated to all other members of the board unless it would be inappropriate to do so.

Annual General Meeting

13. The committee chairman should attend the annual general meeting to answer any shareholder questions on the committee's activities.

Duties

14. The committee shall for Redde plc, its major subsidiary undertakings and the group as a whole (as appropriate):
 - (i) regularly review the structure, size and composition (including the skills, knowledge, experience and diversity) of the board and make recommendations to the board with regard to any changes
 - (ii) give full consideration to succession planning for directors and other senior executives in the course of its work, taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing the company, and the skills and expertise needed on the board in the future
 - (iii) keep under review the leadership needs of the organisation, both executive and non-executive, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the organisation to compete effectively in the marketplace
 - (iv) keep up to date and fully informed about strategic issues and commercial changes affecting the company and the market in which it operates
 - (v) be responsible for identifying and nominating for the approval of the board, candidates to fill board vacancies as and when they arise
 - (vi) promote the development of group senior management talent and consider internal appointments where appropriate
 - (vii) before any appointment is made by the board, evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge, experience and diversity on the board, and, in the light of this evaluation prepare a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment. In identifying suitable candidates the committee will consider:
 - (a) using open advertising or the services of external advisers to facilitate the search;
 - (b) candidates from a wide range of backgrounds; and
 - (c) candidates on merit and against objective criteria and with due regard for the benefits of diversity on the board, including gender taking care that appointees have enough time available to devote to the position

- (viii) for the appointment of a chairman, the committee should prepare a job specification, including the time commitment expected. A proposed chairman's other significant commitments should be disclosed to the board before appointment and any changes to the chairman's commitments should be reported to the board as they arise.
 - (ix) prior to the appointment of a director, the proposed appointee should be required to disclose any other business interests that may result in a conflict of interest and be required to report any future business interests that could result in a conflict of interest
 - (x) ensure that on appointment to the board, non-executive directors receive a formal letter of appointment setting out clearly what is expected of them in terms of time commitment, committee service and involvement outside board meetings
 - (xi) review the results of the board performance evaluation process that relate to the composition of the board
 - (xii) review annually the time required from non-executive directors. Performance evaluation should be used to assess whether the non-executive directors are spending enough time to fulfil their duties
 - (xiii) work and liaise as necessary with other board committees.
15. The committee shall for Redde plc, its major subsidiary undertakings and the group as a whole (as appropriate) make recommendations to the board concerning:
- (i) formulating plans for succession for both executive and non-executive directors and in particular for the key roles of chairman and chief executive
 - (ii) suitable candidates for the role of senior independent director
 - (iii) membership of the audit and remuneration committees, and any other board committees as appropriate, in consultation with the chairmen of those committees
 - (iv) the re-appointment of any non-executive director at the conclusion of their specified term of office having given due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the board in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required
 - (v) the re-election by shareholders of directors under the re-election provisions of the Code and annual re-election as agreed by the Board or the retirement by rotation provisions in the company's articles of association, having due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the board in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required and the need for progressive refreshing of the board (particularly in relation to directors being re-elected for a term beyond six years)
 - (vi) any matters relating to the continuation in office of any director at any time including the suspension or termination of service of an executive director as an employee of the company subject to the provisions of the law and their service contract
 - (vii) the appointment of any director to executive or other office

Reporting responsibilities

16. The committee shall make whatever recommendations to the board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.

17. The committee shall produce a report to be included in the company's annual report about its activities, the process used to make appointments and explain if external advice or open advertising has not been used.

Other matters

18. The committee shall

- (i) have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the company secretary for assistance as required
- (ii) be provided with appropriate and timely training opportunities, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members
- (iii) give due consideration to all laws and regulations as appropriate
- (iv) arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and, at least annually, review its constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the board for approval.

Authority

19. The committee is authorised by the board to:

- (i) obtain, at the company's expense, outside legal or other professional advice on any matters within its terms of reference; and
- (ii) do all such acts and deeds as are required to perform its duties; and
- (iii) obtain any information it requires from any group director, its external auditors or any group employee and any such director or employee shall be directed to co-operate with any requests made by the committee.
